

Living History

Fur Trade Encampment

Visit the years 1810–1825 at Spokane House

Celebrate this year with the Métis

Visit the Interpretive Centre & learn about Métis culture, history and lifestyle.

Talk with traders, voyageurs, trappers, Métis and Indian "Daughters of the Country" at their campsites.

See guns, tools, equipment, leather goods and hand-stitched clothing.

See open-fire cooking.
Demonstrations of flint and steel fire-starting, flintlock shooting and cannon salute.

Bring cameras, friends and family to enjoy the day!
Food vendor on site

Free to the public

June 18 & 19, 2011

10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday & Sunday
Co-sponsored by Washington State Parks and "Friends of Spokane House"

friendsofspokanehouse.com