

Living History
Fur Trade Encampment

Visit the years 1810 - 1825

at the

Spokane House

Talk with traders, voyageurs, trappers, Metis and Indian "Daughters of the Country".

Visit their camps and lodges, see their flintlock guns, tools, equipment, leather goods and hand-stitched clothing.

See a fur trade canoe cannon salutes, open-fire cooking, flint and steel fire-starting, flintlock demonstrations, period music and games.

Bring cameras, lunches, friends and family to enjoy the day!

Liquid refreshments will be for sale

Free to the public
June 20 & 21, 2009

Visit campsites and Interpretive Center

10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday & Sunday
Cospponsored by Washington State Parks and "Friends of Spokane House"

Visit our new website
friendsofspokanehouse.com